BLACK MAN AND BROWN MAN

MR. BRYAN TALKS TO AND OF THEM

Says That it Cost Millions to Supply the Declaration of Independence to the Black Man and is Costing More to Keep it Away from the Brown One.

Easton, Md., Oct. 24.—The Democratic Presidential candidate last night abandoned railway coaches and other land carriages, for a trip on the water. He came down Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore to the hamlet of Claibourne, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and he devoted the forenoon of today to canvassing that section of the State. He left the boat at Claibourne, and from that point traveled by special train.

At St. Michael's, the first stopping place of the day, Mr. Bryan spoke to a small number of people who had congregated there. Among those in the crowd were some colored people, and to them Mr. Bryan addressed himself to some extent. Before speaking to the colored people he referred to the question of trusts. He again charged that the Republican party was suggesting no remedy for the trusts, and that the reason why this was so was that the Republican campaign contributions came from the trusts. On the race question Mr. Bryan said:

"It is one of the strange things we see in this campaign that the Republican party goes to a black man and urges that man to say by his vote that the brown man in the Philippine Islands has not a right to a voice in this government. And it seems to me that before black man votes to disfranchise a brown man, he had better find out upon what basis his own right stands, for if we deny to the Filipino the right to govern himself, what right have we to govern ourselves? It cost hundreds of thousands of lives and millions of money to give the black men the Declaration of Independence and now we are spending hundreds and thousands, yes, millions, of dollars and wasting lives to take the Declaration of Independence away from the brown man. Before the black men of this country vote the Republican ticket they had better look into the matter and find out what the chance of the black man is to be when we draw a race line and say that because a man in the Philippine Islands is brown and not of our race we will send a carpet-bag government over there and hold the government of force over them by a standing army. We believe in the Declaration of Independence and if we have race problems to solve here we think it is better to solve them than to go seven thousand miles away from home to get another race problem and enter upon its solution, not here at home, but so far away from home as the Philippine Islands are."

SPEECH AT DOVER.

Referring to the trusts as an issue of the campaign, Mr. Bryan said in his speech at Dover, Del.:

"If a Republican complains because you discuss the trust question you ask him why his party did not eliminate the trust question by eliminating the trusts. If the Republican party had done its duty during the last three years and a half there would have been no trust question to discuss. The President promised the people in his inaugural address of March, 1897, that he would enforce existing laws and recommend new laws. He has done neither. The Attorney General has not enforced the law against trusts. You have a law on the statute books now that makes it a penitentiary offense for a man to organize a trust. You also have a law making it a penitentiary offense for a man to steal a horse; but it is much safer in this country under a Republican administration to conspire against 75,000,000 people than to steal a horse from one man."

Mr. Bryan again addressed himself to the farmers of his audience and among other things said to them:

"Why should a farmer in Delaware vote to allow corporations to water their stock when no farmer can inflate the value of his farm? I have not seen the statistics of Delaware, but I have seen the statistics of other States, showing that agricultural land will sell for less today than it would sell for ten, fifteen or twenty years ago. You cannot inflate the value of your farm, and yet you allow a corporation to issue watered stock, sometimes as much as ten times as much water as there is money invested, and then you allow it to combine and monopolize a market and plunder people to pay dividends on money never invested in the corporation. Discussing the Philippine question, Mr. Bryan said:

"The Republican party came into existence in an attempt to apply the Declaration of Independence to a black man. It will go out of existence because it refuses to apply that same Declaration to a brown man who is only half black." In the same connection, Mr. Bryan referred to the flag of the United States, saying:

"You Republicans want people to bow before the flag. I want people to turn their faces toward it and thank God that there is one flag on which there is no blood."

DEATH OF DR. CRAIG.

Dropped Dead While Addressing the Virginia Synod.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 24.—While addressing the Virginia Presbyterian Synod at today's session, Rev. Dr. J. N. Craig, of Atlanta, suddenly fell to the floor and in a few moments expired. Heart disease was the cause of death. Dr. Craig was well known in the Presbyterian Church throughout the South and held the office of secretary of the committee of home missions of the Southern General Assembly. His wife and daughter were attending the Synod with him.

Dr. McIver to Speak in New York.

President Charles D. McIver, of the State Normal and Industrial College, has received a pressing invitation to deliver an address before the faculty and students of the Teachers College of Columbia University, New York, at some time in the near future, the date to be made convenient to Dr. McIver. The invitation has been accepted and the address will probably be delivered some time during the month of November.

Political Straws.

Hon. Lee S. Overman, Democratic elector at large, will speak at Whitsett tomorrow afternoon, at which time a beautiful silk banner will be presented to South Rock Creek township for having made the largest Democratic gain in the August election.

Hon. W. W. Kitchin will speak in the court house next Monday night.

The Carr men are enthusiastic over the meeting to be held in the court house tonight in the interest of their Senatorial candidate.

Church Social.

The Presbyterian students of the State Normal and Industrial College will be entertained at a social in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening. The committee in charge is arranging for a musical program in connection with the social features. Mr. A. D. Jones will lend a Kimball piano for the occasion.

Will Learn to Handle the Pestle and Mortar.

Mr. Ben S. Barnes, who has been connected with The Telegram for the past two months, has accepted a position with Grissom & Fordham and will learn the drug business. He is a bright young man, of steady habits, faithful in his work, and will doubtless make a good druggist.

He has the best wishes of everybody connected with The Telegram.

To Play Football in South Carolina.

The football team of Gilford College left this morning for Columbia, S. C., to play a match game with the South Carolina College team. The boys were accompanied by Prof. T. Gilbert Pearson. Gilford's team is strong and the Quakers expect to hold their own before the Palmetto boys.

Another Bicycle Stolen.

The theft of bicycles is getting to be an unusually common occurrence in Greensboro. Mr. W. B. Hunt, who resides on Walker avenue, is the latest victim. He left his wheel, a Stearns, on the front porch last night, and this morning it was gone.

Buys Real Estate.

Rev. E. L. Stack, one of our Southern merchants, yesterday purchased of Mr. Percy Gray the house and lot on Gorrell street formerly occupied by Mr. J. C. Kendall.

GREAT EXPLOSION.

THE STATION AT INDIAN HEAD.

THE LOSS OF LIFE YET UNKNOWN.

The Main Magazine of the Naval Proving Ground on the Potomac Explodes and Destroys the Whole Fort. Twelve Men Dead Sure and Many More May be—People Knocked Down Twelve Miles Distant.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Woodbridge, Va., Oct. 25.—The entire post of the naval proving station at Indian Head on the Potomac River was demolished by the awful explosion of the main powder magazine last night and the consequent firing of other explosives at the station.

Twelve men are known to be dead, and the list will probably be found to be found to be much greater when it becomes possible to make an investigation.

The force of the explosion was terrific. Every building within three miles was destroyed. People were thrown to the ground at Quantico, twelve miles distant.

The identified dead are James Wilbour, John Scott, Robert Bailey, foremen and laborers of the new railroad.

It is feared that many if not all the naval officers and men are killed.

LATER.—A later report says that first accounts were exaggerated.

BEAUTIFUL MARRIAGE IN WINSTON.

Mr. Fariss Weds Miss Gorrell—Will Reside in Montana.

Mr. J. H. Fariss, formerly of this city, but now a successful young business man of Butte, Mont., was married in Winston last evening to Miss Lucretia Gorrell, a popular young lady of the Twin City. The marriage took place in the First Presbyterian church, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Robert E. Caldwell. The Winston correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says of the affair:

"The church was beautifully and attractively decorated and the nuptials were witnessed by many friends of this popular couple. The attendants were as follows: Misses Bessie Blum, Alice Rose, Lily Brown, Edna Maslin, Delphine Carter and Mamie Gray; Messrs. Alfred Scales, Victor McAdoo, of Greensboro; W. S. Snipes, Jas. S. Dunn, Peter Gorrell and Dr. Frank Shaffner, of Winston-Salem.

"The bride was given away by her brother, P. W. Gorrell. Following the marriage a charming reception was tendered the bridal party and a number of relatives and friends at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. B. Gorrell, on West Fifth street.

"The display of lovely and costly presents attested the popularity of Mr. Fariss and his handsome bride. He and Mrs. Fariss will leave in a few days for the home of the groom in Montana."

A Destitute Family Sent to Raleigh.

Chief of Police Scott today sent a family of Assyrians, consisting of a mother, son and daughter, to Raleigh to join some of their people. They resided over a grocery store on South Davie street and were in destitute circumstances. The indications were that the town would have them to support through the winter if they remained here, hence it was considered cheaper to send them to Raleigh, where they are said to have relatives.

Fighting the Trust.

The North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association held an interesting meeting in Raleigh last night. Speeches were made by Mr. J. F. Jordan, of this city, and Col. John S. Cunningham, Gen. W. R. Cox and Judge Walter Clark, all of whom are enthusiastic in the fight against trusts.

The executive committee was instructed to call another meeting in the near future. This may be held in Greensboro.

To Campaign in the West.

Mr. J. A. Logan, United States Marshal Millikan's office deputy, left this morning for his home in Rutherford county, where he will spend a few days. Between now and the election he will make a number of speeches in Rutherford and Polk counties.

TWO NEGROES LYNCHED.

Punished for Frightening the Daughter of a Georgia Farmer.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Atlanta, Oct. 25.—There is terror among the negroes of Pike county today, owing to the sensational lynching that has just taken place near the village of Liberty Hall.

James Grier and James Galloway were lynched for frightening the daughter of a prominent farmer. The negroes were hunting and while passing the farmer's house, wantonly fired at it. The daughter was alone and was thrown into a state of terror, and the family found her in hysterics when they returned.

MISS STOCKARD COMMENDED.

Judge Schenck Speaks in High Terms of Her History of Alamance.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

I hope it will not be amiss in me to say a word of compliment and appreciation of Miss Sallie Stockard's History of Alamance county. I have been perusing it and find much that is new to me, and some history that I did know related in new and charming style. The history of Alamance is partially that of Guilford and Orange counties, and is interesting to our people. Miss Stockard is not only a scholar of culture, but she is a genius. I desire to recommend the book to all our people. Her treatise on the Regulation war is well worth the price of the book. Such love of research and patriotic desire to unfold the honors of our history, should be encouraged. Her history of Guilford county, I trust, will equal that of Alamance.

Respectfully.

D. SCHENCK.

A Concern That Will Cut Ice.

An ice manufacturing company, with a capital of $10,000, was organized in High Point last night with the following stockholders: Capt. A. M. Rankin, Wade Rankin, E. M. Armfield, W. J. Armfield, Jr., Dr. W. J. McAnally, S. Bryant and Wall & Spencer. Officers have not yet been elected.

The company will also conduct a wood and coal business.

ENORMOUS REVENUE RECEIPTS AT DURHAM.

Durham Herald

The internal revenue office here continues to collect large sums of money for Uncle Sam, notwithstanding the fact that the business is done in an office that is not larger than it was ten years ago. The sales this month will probably amount to over two hundred thousand dollars cash.

So far this month not including the sales yesterday, the office has taken in $172,339.92. It is expected that by the end of the month more than two hundred thousand dollars will have been taken in.

A glance at the receipts for the four months previous to this will show what an enormous business is being done in Durham. The following is the receipts by months and at the total: June, $189,986.73; July, $159,950.69; August, $195,406.30; September, $198,618.04. This makes a grand total of $743,941.76 for four months, or one-third of the year. At this rate the receipts this year will reach the enormous sum of $2,231,825.28—over two and a quarter million dollars' worth of business in one year. This is the cash business and does not include the export work which has grown to be something considerable since Durham was made a port of entry.

A REMARKABLE CHARACTER.

GENERAL AGENT OF PEABODY FUND

Dr. Curry, Though 78 Years Old, Has the Energy and Vigor of Youth—Has Successfully Filled a Number of Important Positions in Life—Teacher, Lawyer, Politician, Author, Diplomat and Educational Agent.

Dr. J. L. M. Curry, the general agent of the Peabody fund, who visited the Normal and Industrial College yesterday, is undoubtedly one of the most remarkable men in the country. Few men have successfully filled as many positions in life as he.

He started in life as a teacher and was later a lawyer. Before the Civil war he was a member of Congress and during the four years' struggle between the States served in the Confederate Congress and as colonel of a regiment in the Confederate army. He was afterwards a Baptist minister and president of Richmond College. During Cleveland's first administration he served as minister to Spain and wrote a history of that country. He is also the author of 'The North Against the South,' an argument of the constitutional question of secession. After returning from Spain he was made general agent of the Peabody fund, in which work he has since been engaged.

Whether as teacher, lawyer, preacher, politician, author, diplomat or educational agent, Dr. Curry has always been signally successful. Instances are indeed rare where men have the power of so successfully diverting their lives from one channel to another.

Although 78 years old, Dr. Curry is still active and vigorous, both in mind and body. His work as general agent of the Peabody fund carries him all over the South, and he makes it a point to visit every institution receiving aid from the fund once a year. He also visits and addresses the legislatures of the Southern States. He has appeared before each of them in behalf of education—some of them as many as two or three times.

KILLED HERSELF AND THREE CHILDREN.

A Mecklenburg Negro Woman Cuts the Throats of Her Little Ones, Then Her Own.

Huntersville Special to Charlotte News.

At an early hour this morning, at her home four miles northeast of this place, a colored woman, Carrie Caldwell, killed her three children, aged, two, four and six years, by cutting their throats with a razor, and then gashing her own throat. The woman's mind had become deranged over the death of her mother and of her father, the death of the latter having occurred recently.

When the woman arose this morning she complained to her brother who was visiting her, that she was sick and asked him to attend to the live stock. He went to the barn for that purpose and when he returned to the house found that in his absence his sister had killed her three children and had cut her own throat. A physician and the coroner were summoned to the scene, and at this hour have not returned to Huntersville. The woman's husband was absent from home on a visit to relatives.

The later report of the Observer says:

It appeared that the Caldwell woman had killed two of the children while they were asleep in bed, while the youngest she held in her lap and almost cut its head off.

The mother then took the bodies and carefully laid them in a row on the floor, arranging them in as neat a row as possible, then, with the same razor with which she had killed the children, the woman inflicted three severe wounds upon herself. Once the blade was drawn across the chest and twice deep cuts made in the throat. She then wiped the blood off the razor, closed it and placed it upon the floor, and laid herself down beside the three dead bodies to await death, which occurred during the afternoon.

A letter to The Asheville Gazette says that last Saturday in a clay mill in Jackson county a bank of an open cut slid in and buried three men six feet deep under the earth. John Elders was killed instantly and the other two injured.

MADE IT HOT FOR ROOSEVELT
INTERRUPTED BY TOUGH QUESTIONS

As Usual, Lost His Temper and Did a Lot of Sputtering—Has Given Only 36 Hours to His Office Since June 1st—Asked if He Thought it Honest to Take Full Pay for Such Service.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 24.—Governor Roosevelt's third day of campaigning in New York State embraced several features not heretofore marked in his reception at other places. At nearly every place at which he stopped en route there were huge crowds of people. In this city, tonight, instead of speech making, the day's work ended with a review of an immense demonstration. This was entirely agreeable to Roosevelt, who, during the day had made nine speeches, some of them extremely long ones, while traveling through three counties—Chenango, Madison and Oneida.

Another feature was a preconcerted attempt at Rome to compel Governor Roosevelt to answer questions concerning the removal of Mayor Van Wyck, the prosecution of the ice trust, the prosecution of the alleged canal thieves and others relating to the office of Governor. That this attempt was preconcerted is assured from the fact that men in the crowd asking these questions, held in their hands printed slips and that upon their failure to compel the candidate to answer, numbers of these slips were thrown in his carriage. The Governor positively declined to give any expression of opinion as to the circulars or their authorship, or to answer any of the questions contained in them.

At Rome a huge crowd gathered in the public square and the Governor addressed them from the balcony, to which he was driven from the train. Two crowds of small boys followed his carriage, those on one side shouting, "Hurrah for Bryan!" while those on the other side tried to drown their cheers with counter cheers for McKinley. While the Governor was speaking, a crowd of juveniles who had gathered immediately beneath the Governor, kept trying to annoy him by their boisterous conduct. The Governor finally referred to them, saying:

"It is perfectly characteristic that those who are afraid to hear the truth should try to drown it by noise, and that those who are afraid to talk themselves should send children of immature age to yell for them."

The boys continued their cries of "Hurrah for Bryan!" "What's the matter with Bryan? He's all right," and again the Governor said: "One thing, if Mr. Bryan should come here again I ask that every Republican give him a respectful hearing," which remark was loudly applauded. Continuing, when the applause ceased, he said: "Because the man or boy who takes the opposite course shows himself either to be or about to be a thoroughly disreputable citizen."

The Governor said it was eminently proper that the advocates of Mr. Bryan should seek by disorder to prevent free speech and called attention to the disorder as being an object lesson of greater value than he could preach. Some men in the crowd tried to ask the Governor a list of prepared questions in printed form. He never heard them because the noise was too great in the men's vicinity, but several of the circulars were flung into the carriage which the Governor occupied on his return from the platform. He said to the Associated Press reporter that he would not discuss them and that the majority of them were for the Attorney General to make answer to if he desired. Here are the questions:

"1. Why did you not prosecute the canal thieves as you promised when you were a candidate for Governor?"

"2. Why did you not commence action before the claims were barred?"

"3. Why don't you have a summons issued against the ice trust? The only way to commence an action is by summons. None has ever been served."

"4. Why don't you remove the mayor of New York for his connection with the ice trust?"

"5. You have been only 36 hours at the capitol attending to business as Governor since June 1. Do you think it honest to take full pay during that time?"

"6. Don't you think a candidate for Vice President should find courteous language to express his thoughts and not call his questioners 'hoodlums,' 'boobies' and 'dunces,' and without any knowledge on the subject accuse them of 'working their mouths,' 'standing against the flag,' and 'lacking in patriotism?'

"7. Why not give out for publication Mayor Van Wyck's answer in which it is claimed members of your state administration and Senator Platt charged with being participants in the ice trust scandal?"

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He hasn't been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. An Ancient Toast.

Published by Request.
It was a grand day in the old chivalric home, the wine circling around a board in a noble hall, and the sculptured halls rang with sentiment and song. The lady of each knightly heart was pledged by name, and many a syllable significant of loveliness had been uttered until it came to St. Leon's time: When lifting the sparkling cup on high—"I drink to one," he said, "Whose image never may depart, Deep graven on a grateful heart 'Til memory is dead."

To one whose love for me shall last, When lighter passions long have passed So holy 'tis and true.

To one whose love hath longer dwelt, More keenly fixed more keenly felt Than any pledged to you.

Each guest upstarted at the word And laid a hand upon his sword, With fury flashing eye."

And sternly said we crave the name Proud knight, of this most peerless dame Whose love you count so high.

St. Leon paused, as if he would Not breathe her name in careless mood, Thus lightly to another; The bent his noble head, as though To give that word the reverence due, And gently said, "My Mother."

The American Circus in Germany. Washington Dispatch.

A vague antipathy toward the United States among the people of Aix la Chapelle, Germany, has been turned into respect and awe, and an American circus was the medium.

Consul Brundage, at that place, says the effect of this strictly American institution on the people was rather startling.

When the circus arrived in town not a workman went to the factories, and the spindles were idle all day. The billposting was a revelation in magnitude and character, and the way the tents were erected and the ground prepared astonished the people.

At every performance the tent was full, and the people now say that anything is possible to Americans.

Consul Brundage thinks that if an agent for American goods should follow in the wake of the circus, the newly awakened admiration would give his goods a ready sale.

HIS LAST DRINK.

A Chicago Conductor Delivers a Lecture on Temperance and Then Blows Out His Brains.
Chicago Dispatch 24th.

At the point of a revolver, Chas. A. Smith, formerly a conductor on the Wabash Railroad last night compelled the patrons of a saloon to listen to a lecture on the evils of intemperance, then pressing the weapon to his head he discharged it and blew out his brains in the midst of the crowd.

Holding a glass of liquor in his left hand, he drew a revolver from his pocket with the other and ordered every one in the saloon to remain quiet and make no attempt to leave.

"This is my last drink. You may call it a farewell if you wish," he said. "All of you fellows had better quit drinking. Look at me. I've lost my position with the railroad, and every cent I have scraped together has been spent for liquor. Remember this lecture, men; brace up and leave liquor alone."

Then he placed the pistol against his head and sent a bullet through his skull. He died instantly.

Reversible Campaign Button.

Philadelphia Record.

The other evening a downtown broker got in a Germantown car with a McKinley badge on the lapel of his coat. As the car neared Chelten avenue he, half concealing himself behind an evening newspaper, quickly worked at the button on his lapel, and Bryan showed forth. "I thought you had a McKinley button on just a minute ago," said a fellow-passenger. "So I had," replied the broker, not the least discomfited by the question. "This is a reversible button, designed to avoid all political argument. I am in business downtown, and all my neighbors are Republicans. Were I to wear a Bryan button I would not have a spare minute to attend to my business because of the number of fellows who would be trying to convert me. Where I reside they are nearly all Democrats, and I would lose my rest defending the Republican party were I to wear a McKinley button. I tell you, the man who invented the reversible button was a genius."

WHAT HOBSON SAYS OF SAMPSON.
Prof. R. L. Flowers, of Trinity College, in a letter to the Charlotte Observer comments upon Lieut. Hobson's statement that Rear Admiral Sampson is dying of a broken heart, as follows:

The information that he is dying of a broken heart because of the abuse that has been heaped upon him, and because of what he considers the ingratitude of the American people is pathetic. At first thought, it appears that it is an exhibition of weakness for a strong man to give up, whatever may be his treatment, and yet it is human nature. The strongest and bravest men have often died of broken hearts.

The writer of this article was a cadet at Annapolis while Rear Admiral Sampson was superintendent and Lieutenant Hobson was a cadet, and knew both. It is characteristic of Hobson to sympathize so deeply with his superior officer. I have not seen Hobson since his daring deed brought him fame and honor, but when I knew him he came nearer being my ideal of a true, brave, Christian man than any other person I have ever known. It is possible that the attention he received may have changed him, but I am inclined to believe that the account of many of his apparently foolish acts have been exaggerated, and that he has been made to suffer on account of the jealousy of naval officers. He is a fine type of Southern manhood, handsome in person, courteous and gentle in his manners, and with one of the brightest minds I have ever known.

The indignation and shame that he feels on account of the treatment of his superior officer is indicative of his character, always ready to stand by the right and to condemn the wrong. Lieutenant Hobson is reported to have spoken of his recent visit to Admiral Sampson's home in Boston thus:

Mrs. Sampson told me that this great man was brooding, was breaking his heart at the thought that his fellow countrymen were so unkind. I said to Mrs. Sampson that when I visited my Southland I would tell them something of this majestic character. She replied:

"You dare not; your Southland was quick and vigorous to resent what they thought was an attempt to take away the laurels of one of its great men."

I told her she did not know the people of the South. I came by Washington and saw the Secretary of the Navy and the President and they both gave their consent, though kindly warning me what to expect.

The people of this country think this man's blood is ice water. He has a heart as tender as a child and is as modest as a woman. He never asked for position. He has never uttered any word against another officer and has never taken part in any controversy.

This great man has had his heart cut, has been almost slain. His heart is breaking. He is to be compared with two characters only in history—George Washington at Valley Forge and Robert E. Lee, who did his great duty and accepted his sorrow without a word.

We were satisfied at the time of the discussion of the question of who deserved the credit at Santiago that much of it was worse than folly. It appeared to us that there was credit enough for both Sampson and Schley, though quite in different shapes, and the glory of neither could be taken by the other. We shall not attempt to argue the question now. Both sides were at fault. A large part of the zeal for Schley came from journals who felt called upon to detract from Sampson because they thought he was the favorite of the administration, which was opposite in politics. In fact, politics was largely at the bottom of it all. Neither Sampson nor Schley needed any defense, and a large part of their so-called defense was purely officious and gratuitous from little fellows who seek to turn every incident to party advantage.

The ice trust is the one institution that both the parties in New York can point to with pride as an example of the other fellow's devilry.

The crowd of inmates that overpowered the guards of an insane asylum the other day and achieved their liberty upheld the theory of the consent of the governed.

MRS. STRIKE STILL IN COMA.

The Case of the Woman Who Escaped Being Buried Alive Baffles Science. Skippensburg, Pa. Dispatch.

Mrs. John S. Strike, the woman who fell suddenly into a state of coma on Sunday evening, continues almost in the same condition as when she was supposed to have died, and her case is exciting widespread interest. To all outward appearances she is dead, and the existence of life can only be detected by skilled physician.

HER HEART STILL BEATS.

The attending physician last evening found that her pulse, though almost indiscernible, made eighty beats, and that her heart was beating very feebly. One of the remarkable features of the case is that her feet are warm while the remainder of her body remains cold. At seven o'clock this evening it was forty-eight hours since she entered this state, and the first twelve hours during Sunday night she lay on the cooling board prepared for burial.

INDICATION OF LIFE IN THE EVENING.

Another marked feature is that there are more indications of life in the evening than during the early hours of the day. This afternoon she was heard slightly breathing for a few moments, and her eyeballs moved, but it is thought to have been a contraction of the muscles. There has been no change in her condition since last evening, except that the temperature of the body seems to have grown slightly warmer.

Greatest Fighting Machine in the World. Philadelphia Record.

The battleship Retvian constructed by the Cramps for the Russian Government, the largest warship ever built in this country, and said to be the mightiest fighting machine in the world, was launched yesterday afternoon. There are battleships in the British navy that have a greater displacement than the Retvian, but it is asserted by naval experts that the additional weight is caused by a thicker armor that is really no more effective than the thin Krupp armor of the new Russian battleship. The English giants are protected by armor in thickness varying from 12 to 15 inches, while the Retvian is shielded by Krupp armor nine inches thick. As far as offensive power goes it is asserted that the Retvian compares favorably with the English engines of war.

HOW TO MAKE FORTUNES.
The Late Collis P. Huntington Said
It Was by the Chemistry of Manufactures.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eosoma on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medications and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Siegfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the boils disappeared.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75cts. Cures headache, constipation. Only 25c. at C. E. Holton's drug store.

To Protect Wild Animals.
An act for the prevention of cruelty to wild animals has just become effective in England. The new law extends the provisions of the act, which has heretofore extended only to domestic animals to all birds, fishes and reptiles not included in that measure, and makes offenders liable to three months' imprisonment or a fine of £5.

Blobbs—"He says he would rather fight than eat." Blobbs—"I guess he must be a pugilist." Blobbs—"Maybe he's a dyspeptic."

Large sun spots, astronomers say, caused the extreme heat this summer, and doctors declare nearly all the prostrations were induced by disorders of the stomach. Good health follows good digestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat. If you have indigestion or dyspepsia it will quickly relieve and permanently cure you.

Howard Gardner.

Like lightning, the successful borer never strikes twice in the same place.

It is well to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and skin diseases and many wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Counterfeits may be offered you. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.

Wigg—"They say that for a Chicago man he has remarkably quiet tastes." Wagg—"Quiet tastes!" I guess you've never overheard him eating."

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug druggist.

Tommy—"Pop, what's an optometrist?" Tommy's Pop—"An optometrist, my son, is a man who could lose both legs and have no kick coming."

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS

Are grand, but skin eruptions rob life of joy. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, cures them; old running and fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, warts, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, chapped hands, chilblains. Best piles cure on earth. Drives out pains and aches. Only 25 cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Hoax—"What makes you think he's a Republican? Why he has even named his dog Bryan." Joax—"That's what makes me think he's a Republican. I've seen the dog."

Do not get scared if your heart troubles you. Most likely you suffer from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and gives the worn out stomach perfect rest. It is the only preparation known that completely digests all classes of foods; that is why it cures the worst cases of indigestion and stomach trouble after everything else has failed. It may be taken in all conditions and cannot help but do you good.

Muggins—"Heppeke says he isn't going to buy any coal until it comes down." Buggins—"Well, his wife usually manages to make it so hot for him that I shouldn't think he would need any."

RHEUMATISM—CATARRH—DIS
EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Youngpop—"Why so downcast?" Newlywed—"My wife threatens to go home to her mother." Youngpop—"Humph! That nothing. My wife threatens to bring her mother on to us."

NO RIGHT TO UGLINESS

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blisters, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

No man is so absent-minded that he wants to pay a bill twice.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. Howard Gardner.

Experience is the best teacher, and the most expensive.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses the One Minute Cough Cure, the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Howard Gardner.

has bread "to burn." Last night several nice loaves were left in a show-would probably have gone to make a square meal for some "Weary Willie" or "Woeful Wraggles."
